

Private and Group Violin Instructor

The Concord Conservatory of Music is a vibrant non-profit community music school in the Metro-west Boston area with over 460 students. Lessons and group classes are offered to ages 4-95+ at all levels.

HOURS: Two afternoons, evenings and Saturdays determined by need.

JOB SUMMARY

Violin Group Class and Individual Instruction faculty are responsible for providing excellent music instruction to Concord Conservatory of Music Students. The teacher is responsible for music instruction, studio management, participation in the work of the strings department, including attending faculty meetings and engagement in the overall work and mission of the Concord Conservatory of Music. The instructor will also lead group classes as part of the West Side Strings Program.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Maintain high standards of teaching excellence; including fostering a positive learning environment that is student-centered, establishing a good rapport with students and families, encouraging open discussion and creating a positive atmosphere.
- Support the artistic and educational development of each student by proactively recommending their participation in the many educational programs that CCM offers to students. Many such programs will enhance the student's experience and make their music education at CCM complete and meaningful.
- Create and prepare appropriate lesson and class materials that are in accordance with the given curriculum area.
- Communicate with students and families regarding student's progress and future directions, scheduling, and related administrative policies.
- Promptly return phone calls and messages to students, families and CCM administration.
- Maintain consistent schedule of teaching following the CCM guidelines.
- Keep accurate attendance records.
- Attend faculty meeting(s) by the department or program schedule.
- Keep absences to a minimum adhering to the teacher absence policy.
- Two afternoons of teaching that include private lessons and West Side Strings group classes.
- Participation in recitals and concerts

QUALIFICATIONS

- Teachers must have experience, intuition, and enthusiasm for working with young children as well as exceptional skills communicating with parents, and the more advanced students of all ages.
- Preferred qualifications: M.A in music with an emphasis on pedagogy & performance, significant performance experience, 4+ years of studio teaching experience

WAGES

Commensurate with experience and training.

START DATE Candidates are encouraged to start in the summer. The fall semester begins September 6, 2022.

Contact Info:

Please send resume, cover letter, and references to kyoder@ConcordConservatory.org. Please, no phone calls.