

Early Childhood Music Instructor

Are you passionate about joyful, movement-based music learning? The Concord Conservatory of Music (CCM) is seeking an enthusiastic Early Childhood Music Instructor with a strong Dalcroze foundation to join our vibrant, community-centered music school in MetroWest Boston.

At CCM, early childhood music is active, playful, and rooted in creativity. Our classrooms are welcoming spaces where young children explore rhythm, expression, and musicality through movement, imagination, and hands-on music-making. We value educators who bring curiosity, collaboration, and a deep respect for how young children learn.

About the Role

Schedule: One weekday afternoon and Saturday mornings.

Ages: 3–6 years

You will:

- Teach engaging, developmentally informed early childhood music classes
- Incorporate Dalcroze principles to support musical understanding through movement
- Adapt lessons to meet the needs of each class
- Collaborate with CCM's early childhood faculty to shape curriculum and share best practices
- Communicate with parents to support learning, retention, and community engagement

Qualifications

Education

- BA in Music, Music Education, or an arts-related field with strong musical proficiency
- Dalcroze Certificate preferred
- Orff or Kodály training welcomed

Experience

- Minimum 3 years teaching young children (ages 3–6) in a classroom setting
- Strong intuition, enthusiasm, and classroom management skills
- Excellent communication with both children and parents
- Organized, collaborative, and committed to high-quality early childhood music education

Start Date: Late August 2026

Compensation

Wages are commensurate with experience and training.

To Apply

Please send your resume and cover letter describing your experience, capabilities, and interests to kyoder@ConcordConservatory.org with the subject line "Early Childhood".

No phone calls, please.
